Everyone Welcome!

Los Angeles County Arboretum & Botanic Garden
301 North Balwin Avenue, Arcadia, CA 91007

Welcome to the 34th Los Angeles Environmental Education Fair!

Children, families, and educators are all invited to join us on March 9, 2013, at the Los Angeles Arboretum to celebrate the 34th Annual Los Angeles Environmental Education Fair. Join us for music, community art stations, storytelling, live animals, educational animal exhibits, workshops, and delicious food.

Participate in the following workshops:

- Smart Gardening/Composting Workshop
- Moss Paint Mural
- Environmental Service Learning Professional Development Workshop – Teacher Giveaways!

BioBlitz – located at Baldwin Lake:

- Learn about animals, plants, and the aquatic.

Free Generation Earth Professional Development Workshop for 7th-12th Grade Educators/Administrators in the Oak Room from 9:00 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. (Pre-Registration required):

- This hands-on workshop will explore environmental issues in L.A. County and how to launch an environmental service learning project with your students. Includes Earth Day ideas, auditing tools, personalized project support, free bus for a project related field trip and sample project exhibits. To register, email Loyda Ramos at Iramos@treepeople.org or call 818-623-4856.

Group and Organizational displays:

- Join Jane Goodall's Roots & Shoots in their annual Celebration of Service! Come see student service project displays and learn how you can join the youth movement to make change happen in your community.
- Come meet an African Ball-Python Snake at the Kidspace Booth! Other activities include a moss paint mural and newspaper seed pots.
- Visit the many educational animal and environmental organizations at their interactive booths.
- Get your body and mind moving by joining us on a Mediterranean Nature Hike.
- A variety of hands-on science and nature activities will be offered. Collect stamps in your passport as you complete them. Join the fun!
